

You don't have to be on a long walk to a physical destination to be on a pilgrimage, but you have to be trying to achieve something, to understand something, or to reach a place in your head, your soul, your heart.

(Clare Balding, interviewed in The Church Times, 1st May 2020)